THEATRICAL.

—Local theatrical interest is centered on the approaching dates of the big six act vaudeville production of McMahan & Jackson at the Paris Grand, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 15, 16 and 17. The management has spared neither pains nor expense in their efforts to make this one of the best productions ever presented to the theatre-goers of Paris and includes six of the best acts that could possibly we obtained, namely: Petet family, feature acrobatic novelty; Mr. and Mrs. Gottloh, in a comedy playlet; Nancy Rice, singing and dancing harpist; Chas. Carroll, ventriloquist; Rose and Ruse expert sharpshooters and Isubelle Rose expert sharpshooters and Isabelle

Verry, comedienne.

Tom Petet & Co,'s act in which is interwoven a little sketch in which an old man bent physically and broke financially has sold everything he has but a painting of his acrobat act when in his prime, and when the girl proposes selling the painting the old man refuses, then the girl to ease the old man's mind, gives her last lesson in dramatic reading to living pictures while the old man falls asleep and dreams he is doing acrobats again. Then the famous Petet family introduces the acrobatic act in which the old man takes part. The girl returns with news of a job and tells him of her success and the old man is overjoyed at the prospects; she is going to ride in the races. Then she gives a short race for a finish, which makes a beautiful climax of the act, which runs 15 minutes. The girl, Miss Irene Sterenton, never fails to hold the audi-Louisville is to be made the head- ence and keep them with her to finish. Rose and Rose have one of the most

Owing to the enormous expense attached to such an undertaking the management has advanced the price of admission, which is one the popular priced scale, and as it is well within the reach of all, the theatre-goers of Paris should extend a liberal patron-
